

Sisterhood Names Director for 1960 Variety Show

Jan Darian, manager-director of the Jan Darin Studios in Hermosa Beach, has been named director of the Temple Menorah Sisterhood's annual variety show.

"The Menorahs," scheduled for Feb. 18 and 19. A native of Vandavia, Mo., Mr. Darian received his theatrical training abroad after completing his formal education in New York City. Prior to returning to this country he spent 14 years in Europe where he appeared as premier dancer with the Berlin State Opera, Covent Garden Opera, La Scala Opera, and Hill-Opera.

While in England, where he starred in several films, musicals, and ballets, he danced at a command performance for King George V. An authority on North and South African Tribal Dances, he also staged the Machine Ballet for the Follies Bergere and Opera Comique in Paris. Stateside credits include the direction and choreography of "Streets of New York," the melodrama, "Will the Mail Train Run Tonight" on the Los Angeles stage, and choreography for The Shamrock Inn and the Corenet Theatre.

President of the Civic Symphony of Torrance and South Bay and vice-president of the Rheumatic Fever Foundation, Darian is currently slated to appear with Ruth St. Denis in "The Blue Madonna of St. Marks" later this month. Use Press classified ads to buy, rent or sell. Phone FA 8-2345.

Civic Symphony Winners Named

The South Bay Civic Symphony has announced the winners of the recent audition for roles in the "Blue Madonna of St. Marks" which will be given on Dec. 29 and Dec. 30 at 8 p.m. at Redondo High School auditorium. The star, Ruth St. Denis, was the principal judge, ably assisted by three other well-known artists from the dance world; Jan Darian, Barbara Andres, and Gladys Norman.

So many applicants appeared for places in the "Blue Madonna" a double cast was selected. Those chosen for roles in this production are Linda Heltz, Katie Smith, Emily Chambers, Fra Angelico Angles, group 1; Susan Travis, Patty Wallburg, Kathie Hawks, Kathy McClelland, Peggy Jones, Vicki Jo Pontius, Christy Lynch, Mary Walraven, Leslie Callahan, Ricardo O'Conner, Patty Willaby, group 2; Sara Jane Edgerton, Patricia Talbutt, April Tygard, Leigh-ellen Micks, Susan Ellis, Janine Wells, Roberta Chillington, Shelly Foote, Lullaby Angels, Vicki Marx, Connie Jaime, Carolyn Wells, Charing Eddington, Kim Allred, Christy Schweitzer, Jacalyn Loomis, Gladys Norman, Diedre Stern, Vicki Hoffman, Peggy Stewart. Reserved seats are selling rapidly for this popular show and several organizations are taking books of as many as a hundred. Use classified Call FA 8-2345

Rambler Men Named to Auto Society

American Motors Corporation announced today that Irvin R. King, Delmar Jordan and Raymond E. Beasley of Dwight Eubank Rambler, 1885 Torrance Blvd. have been named to membership in the select American Motors Society of Automotive Technicians.

The Society is made up of outstanding Rambler service personnel who have passed a rigid examination covering all mechanical phases of Rambler automobiles. King, Jordan and Beasley, who have been employed by Dwight Eubank Rambler since June of 1958, have been in automobile service work for an average of eighteen years each. "The fact that these men have been accepted into the society indicates that they possess outstanding skill, technique and product knowledge," said Dwight Eubank, head of the Rambler agency.

A relatively new family of chemical compounds, of the 5-Fluorouracil family has been found active against cancer growth in American Cancer Society research. Use classified ads for quick results. Phone FA 8-2345.
